COST CENTER ENTRY

1. Path:

General Setup/Accounting Basic Info/ 6001050 Cost Center Entry

2. Image:

3. Definition:

The "Cost Center Entry" Form is where user can register profit and loss center to follow expense and revenue of that center, it is called cost center.

4. How to use:

- Button Search : user can choose this information to search center which user registered in system: Center code, name, status. After that, press to view detail information the right side.
- Button : when user press this button. User can input information as: cost center code, name, local name, korea name, description.
- Active : user check here to use cost centers.
- Leaf : check here if the cost center which you create is posting level. And when user want to add more cost center so uncheck.
- After that press button to save that information.
- Button : when user choose the row need to delete and press this button.