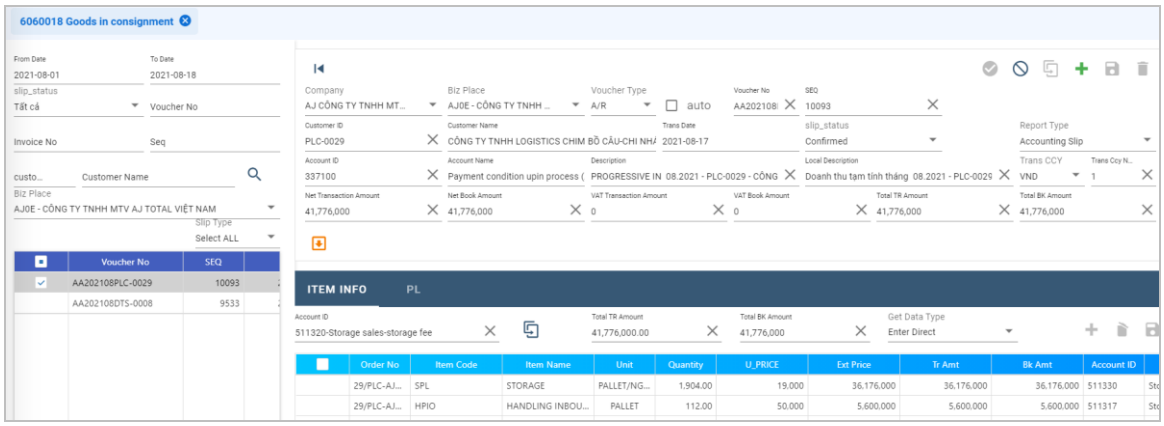
GOODS IN CONSIGNMENT

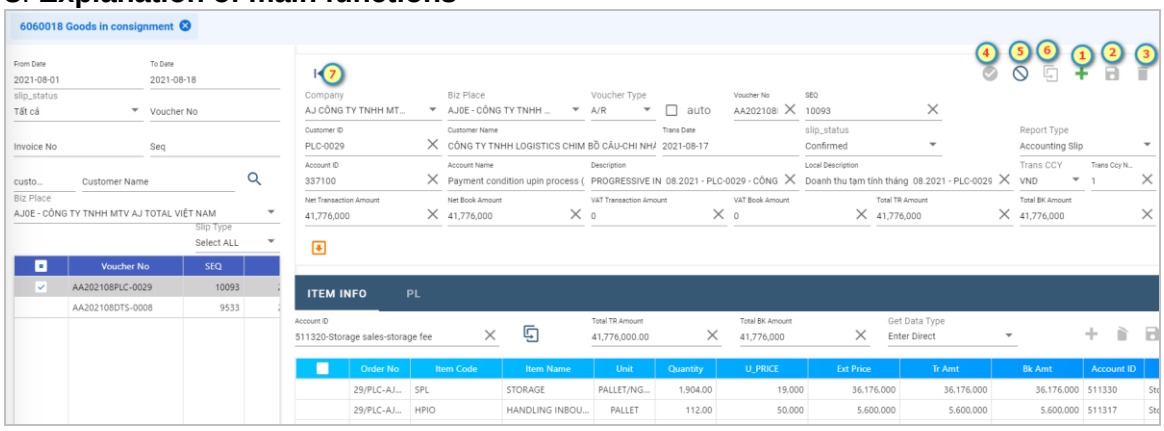
1. Path:

FM (Financial Management) / Accounts Receivable / 6060018 Goods in consignment

2. Image:



3. Explanation of main functions



- "6060018 Goods in Consignment": form is where display information from 6060069 Settlement APPROVE.
- The main buttons

1. This button is used to add a new domestic receivable debt transaction.
2. User click this button to save data.
3. User click this button to delete the domestic receivable debt transaction.
4. This button is called the confirmed fuction, used to verify data, update Confirmed status for the transaction and then record data in the accounting books.
5. This button is called the cancelled function, used to update the transaction the cancelled status, and remove data in accounting book.

6. This button is called the replicated function, the system will copy the selected cancelled transaction and then re-write the new transaction with the Saved status, then the system will display the new transaction in screen.

7. User click button to hide the grid in the left and show full detailed controls.

- The grid in the left:

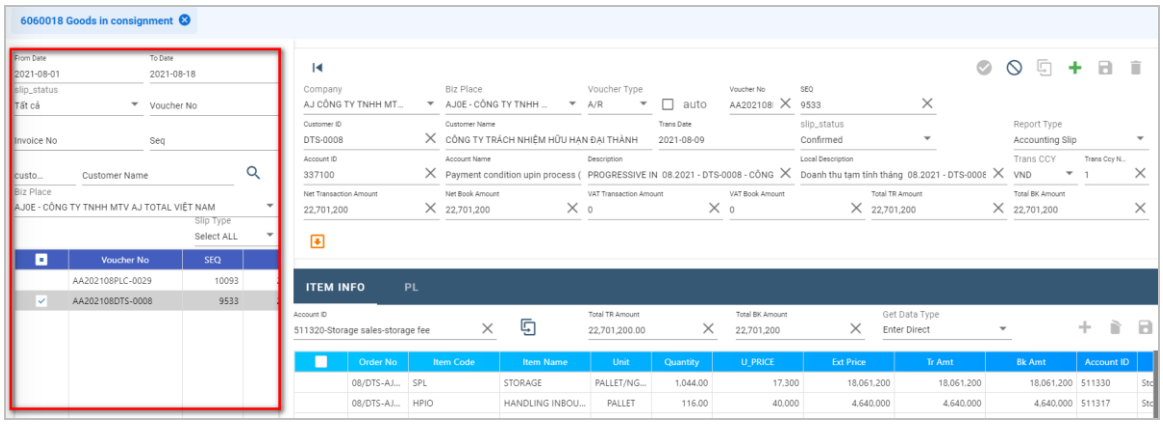
It is the red rectangle, we can filter data here. The system will filter the data of the selected company on the right side of the red rectangle.

Search terms also range from date to date, voucher status, voucher no, invoice number, SEQ number, customer Id, customer name. After entering or selecting all search terms, the user clicks the Search button .


Slip Status	The state of entry, saved, confirmed, approved, cancelled…
Customer ID	Code of customer
Customer Name	Name of customer
SEQ	The unique identifier of the journal entry